4. POLICY :

All Related Party Transactions must be reported to the Audit Committee for its approval in accordance with this Policy.

4.1. Identification of Potential Related Party Transactions :

Each Director and Key Managerial Personnel who is, directly or indirectly, concerned or interested in any way in the potential Related Party Transaction shall disclose all material information to the Committee or Board of Directors, as the case may be, concerning such transaction and nature of his or her interest in the proposed transaction. The Board shall record the disclosure of Interest and the Audit Committee will determine whether the transaction does, in fact, constitute a Related Party Transaction requiring compliance with this Policy.

The Company strongly prefers to receive such notice of any potential Related Party Transaction well in advance so that the Audit Committee has adequate time to obtain and review information about the proposed transaction.

The Audit Committee or the Board of Directors may recommend the formation of a special committee to review any Related Party Transactions.

4.2. Review and Approval of Related Party Transactions:

All the Related Party Transactions shall be subject to the prior approval of the Audit Committee whether at a meeting or by resolution by circulation. Any member of the Committee who has a potential interest in the Related Party Transaction will abstain from any discussion and voting on the approval of the Related Party Transaction/s.

The Audit Committee of the Board will review and, if appropriate, approve the Related Party Transactions. Accordingly, at first meeting of the Audit Committee in every financial year, management shall present to the Committee the following information with respect to all Related Party Transactions expected to be entered into during that calendar year:

- (a) the name of the Related Party and the basis on which such person or entity is a Related Party ;
- (b) the Related Party's interest in the transactions, including the Related Party's position or relationship with, or ownership of, any entity that has an interest in the transactions ;
- (c) the approximate value of the transactions and approximate value of the Related Party's interest in the transactions;
- (d) a general description of the transactions, including material terms and conditions ;
- (e) in case of lease or other transaction providing for periodic payments or installments, the aggregate amount of all periodic payments or instalments to be made ;
- (f) in case of loan, aggregate amount of loan and the rate amount of interest needs to be payable on such loan ;
- (g) in case of guarantees issued, aggregate amount of guarantees and commission to be payable on such guarantees ;
- (h) in assessment of whether the transactions are on terms that are comparable to the terms available to unrelated third parties or to employees generally ; and
- (i) any other material information regarding the transaction(s) or the Related Party's interest in the transaction(s).

After reviewing such information, the members of the Audit Committee (without the participation the Committee member(s) interested in the transaction, if any) shall approve or disapprove such transactions. Approval of such transactions shall be provided only if it is determined by the Committee that such transactions are;

- (a) in (or not inconsistent with) the best interests of the Company and its shareholders
- (b) to be entered into by the Company (or its subsidiary or associate entity) on terms that are comparable to those that would be obtained in arm's length transactions with unrelated third parties
- (c) In the ordinary course of the business of the Company.

If the Committee determines that a Related Party Transaction should be brought before the Board, or if the Board in any case elects to review any such matter or it is mandatory under any law for Board to approve the Related Party Transaction, then the Board shall consider and approve the Related Party Transaction at a meeting and the considerations set forth above shall apply to the Board's review and approval of the matter, with such modification as may be necessary or appropriate under the circumstances.

4.3. Omnibus approval for Related Party Transactions:

The Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for Related Party Transactions proposed to be entered into by the Company subject to the following conditions:

- a. The Audit Committee shall lay down the criteria for granting the omnibus approval in line with the Policy and such approval shall be applicable in respect of transactions which are repetitive in nature.
- b. The Audit Committee shall satisfy itself the need for such omnibus approval and that such approval is in the interest of the Company.
- c. Such omnibus approval shall specify
  - (i) the name/s of the Related Party, nature of transaction, period of transaction, maximum amount of transaction that can be entered into,
  - (ii) the indicative base price / current contracted price and the formula for variation in the price if any and
  - (iii) such other conditions as the Audit Committee may deem fit.

Provided that where the need for Related Party Transaction cannot be foreseen and aforesaid details are not available, Audit Committee may grant omnibus approval for such transactions subject to their value not exceeding ₹ 1 crore per transaction.

- d. Audit Committee shall review, at least on a quarterly basis, the details of Related Party Transactions entered into by the Company pursuant to each of the omnibus approval given.
- e. Such omnibus approvals shall be valid for a period not exceeding one year and shall require fresh approvals after the expiry of one year.

5. APPROVAL OF THE BOARD AND THE SHAREHOLDERS

The Audit Committee shall report all 'Material Related Party Transactions' to the Board of Directors. The Company will also seek shareholders' approval for 'Material Related Party Transactions' in the subsequent annual general meeting of the year in which the Related Party Transaction is undertaken or by postal ballot process. The resolution will be an ordinary resolution and the related parties (if any) will abstain from voting on such resolution, irrespective of whether or not such Related parties are parties to a particular Transaction.

In case of transactions, which are not ordinary course of business or not at arm's length, approval from the Board will be required. In case these are material transactions, shareholders' approval will be required.

Pursuant to the section 188 of the Companies Act, 2013 and Listing Regulations specifies certain Material transactions will be defined as under;

Sr. No.	Particulars
1.	Sale, purchase or supply of any goods or materials directly or through appointment of agents exceeding 10% of the Turnover of the Company or ₹100 crore, whichever is lower
2.	Selling or otherwise disposing of, or buying, property of any kind directly or through appointment of agents exceeding 10% of Net Worth of the Company or ₹ 100 crore, whichever is lower
